SELF-EMPLOYMENT INCOME VERIFICATION

Determining if your self-employment business meets the scholarship requirements?

1. Your self-employment business must have legal recognition. This can be proven through one of the following:
 - IRS filed tax return (required if your self-employment business was created in the past calendar year.)
 - Business license from city or county (if less than 1 year old and using Self Employment Verification Form)
2. Income from a self-employment business must meet the current Federal Minimum Wage test. The net income is divided by the federal minimum wage to determine if the parent meets the monthly activity requirement.

What documents will I need?

The following list of documents are used to verify earned income. It is the responsibility of the applicant/participant to provide verification of all income used to determine eligibility.

- Self-employment Income Verification form
- Bookkeeping records
- Receipts for ALL allowable expenses
- Pertinent lease agreements [building, vehicle, chair (cosmetology), etc.]
- Contracts [construction, etc.]
- Bank Statements [personal & business] and cancelled checks
- Tax Returns: A complete tax return showing proof of filing and include copies of IRS forms 1040 and Schedule C must be submitted. If using tax returns, no additional documentation is required.

What expenses are allowed or not allowed? You must have business records to verify the information given on this form.

Allowed business expenses are subtracted from the gross receipts to determine taxable gross income. Allowable expenses must directly relate to the production of income. Receipts must be attached to be counted.

Not Allowed business expenses include those derived from capital investments:

- Depreciation
- Amortization
- Non-sufficient Fund charges
- Credit Card late fees
- Business start-up costs
- Payments on principal portion of loan payments
- Personal transportation
- All expenses for which receipts are not provided.

How to report self-employment income? There are two ways to show your self-employment income:

- If your self-employment business is over a year old and you have filed a tax return, the tax return should be submitted.
- If your self-employment business less than 1 year old, you can use Section 2 of the Self Employment Verification Form to enter income and expenses. Documentation supporting income and expenses will be required.
